SECOND SPECIAL VENIRE NEARLY EXHAUSTED

JONES TRIAL DRAGGING ALONG IN PRELIMINARY STAGES. ELEVEN PASSED FOR CAUSE.

Three and a half days have passed, eighty men have been examined as to their qualifications to serve as trial jurors, two special venires for fifty names each have been issued, and the getting of a jury in the Jones murder trial in Judge Robinson's court has progressed no further than to have passed for cause the following eleven men: H. A. Parmalee, E. R. Bivens, Wm. Dunbar, J. J. Egan, John Coffee, Jas. D. Dougherty, H. C. Brown, I. Bray, Benj. F. Vickers, J. W. Bergstrom and Emil Berndt.

One more man must be passed on his voir dire and then come the peremptory challenges, twelve for the defense, six for the prosecution.

Those examined this morning were all challenged for cause: A. N. Campbell, J. H. Schnack, C. C. Conradt, Percy, Lishman, C. J. Fisher and Jno. H. Naone.

Out of fifty names on the second special venire returned this morning, the following thirty-one were answered to: C. C. Conradt, A. M. Keoho, Harry Armitage, John A. Johnson, A. W. Rice, J. H. Schnack, Geo. Kahana, L. de L. Ward, J. A. M. Johnson, J. C. Quinn, John H. Naone, L. C. Ables, Louis Marks, Sam. K. Mahoe, H. R. Macfarlane Jr., Geo. K. Kall, Manuel Miranda, E. P. O'Brien, Albert N. Campbell, V. Kenloha, John Kahue, C. J. Fisher, Chas. H. Bellina, James Carty, E. Wells Peterson, Percy Lishman, E. S. Cunha, Willard E. Brown, David Goldstein, Alec. C. Dowsett, G. L. Desha Jr.

Nineteen of the men named in the venire of fifty could not be found; several have gone to the mainland.

Of the thirty-one who put in an appearance, the following were excused by the court for good reasons stated: A. M. Keoho, Harry Armitage, John A. Johnson, Geo. Kahana, L. de L. Ward, S. K. Mahoe, H. R. Macfarlane Jr., Geo. K. Kall, Manuel Miranda, John Kahue, Chas. H. Bellina, James Carty, E. W. Peterson, David Goldstein, A. C. Dowsett and Geo. L. Desha.

But nine men are left on the last venire to be examined. Another special venire will be called this afternoon; it is expected, and may necessitate the use of men now serving as jurors in the civil courts.

Harry Armitage asked to be excused on account of pressure of business. He said E. R. Bivens had been assisting him but Bivens was now on the jury, passed for cause. Armitage would have to close up business if he was required to serve.

"There is no special stir in stocks just now, is there?" asked the court.

"Well, I was just asking Mr. Campbell, here, about some stocks he was to (Continued on Page 4.)

SAYS HE DOESN'T EARN HIS SALARY

Atkinson Receives a Con- fession That Sur- prises.

FARMER DOLE WANTS HIS RANGER PAY CUT

Secretary Atkinson has received a startling confession.

Atkinson has seldom been so surprised, either in his private, social, professional, athletic or official career.

Dole is the man who confessed, J. D. Dole of Wahiawa; small farmer, agriculture commissioner, pineapple promoter, amateur entomologist and forest ranger.

It was in relation to the last talent that James D. Dole confessed. He appeared yesterday before the Secretary and said he did not believe he was earning his salary as a ranger and what he better do about it?

Thirty dollars per month is a government ranger's salary per month.

Atkinson was at a loss what to say. Never before had he heard of a person receiving pay from the Government, confessing to not doing work enough to earn the money. It is thought that perhaps something can be found for Dole to do to earn his $30 as a ranger, unless, of course, retrenchment proceedings cut out all rangers, or the Government, in any event, has not the money to pay the $30 per.

Dole's ranging duties, when he has any, cover the district in which Wahiawa is included. He is much interested in forestry and all matters pertaining to agriculture. As a member of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry he has done good work in the way of experimentation and he has acquired a practical working knowledge of pests and parasites, giving the Board the benefit of his field experience.

As a ranger for the Government, in addition to his numerous private interests, Dole has recently had little to do and it was this fact, especially in view of the present financial difficulties of the Territory, that Dole mentioned to Secretary Atkinson that he

HAMMERING PORT ARTHUR

Port Arthur Attack Renewed Today

[Associated Press Special Cable.]
PORT ARTHUR, Manchuria, March 10.—The Japanese fleet began a bombardment of the city at midnight last night and continued until 8 o'clock this morning.

Japanese Hackmen And Sheriff Take Fight To Court

Troubles between various Japanese who would be drivers of hacks and other public vehicles and High Sheriff Arthur M. Brown are up to the Territorial Supreme Court for settlement.

The Japanese want licenses to drive and the Sheriff will not issue them certificates of qualification on the ground that they are not "competent drivers," inasmuch as they do not understand English and write the English language.

On the other hand, the applicants say they know the rules and regulations governing public carriages, having read them and understood them in the Japanese language and that they know how to handle horses.

The Sheriff admits that applicants can steer a hack through city streets to places of importance, such as might attract tourists, but that "the handling of a simple English sentence, such as a tourist might use in asking a question of the hackman, is not within the powers of the would-be drivers."

For some time, differences of opinion on this interesting subject have existed between the Japanese and the High Sheriff. Now the matter is put in the hands of the Supreme Court for a decision as to whether or not the law will permit one who cannot read or write English to guide citizens and tourists among Honolulu's attractions.

Takichi Sakata and several other Japanese, on the one side, and High Sheriff A. M. Brown on the other, allege that there is a question in dispute between them which might be the subject of a civil action in Supreme Court and therefore present a statement of facts to the Supreme Court.

They thought his $30 salary might just as well be cut out.

Dole's action is considered an example that might well be followed by many others in Government employ, and his straightforward action, notwithstanding the jokes that are being passed about on account of his unique manifestation of honesty, is being very favorably commented upon.

charges were the principal load the year. There will be made for the first time, this year, a direct shipment of 2500 tons around the Horn by sailing vessel from the crop now being harvested.

NONE TO SUGGEST

Territorial Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson stated today that the vacancy in the Water Works Department by the removal of Vivian Richardson, alleged embezzler, would not be filled.

In line with contemplated retrenchment schemes, it is to be arranged that Richardson's former job be cut out and that the receiving and receipting for water works money be attended to in the office of the Public Works Department.

Atkinson is now working on health department cuts. Police, education and military statements as to cutting opportunities have been received and are being considered by the executive.

COUNSEL FIGHT ON ADMISSION OF LAW

"The last Legislature passed a certain law," said Federal Judge Dole from the bench this morning, "and I, as Governor, signed it. Later Auditor Fisher refused to issue a warrant under that law, holding that he had been present at the time the law was supposed to have been passed and that as a matter of fact, it did not properly pass; that there was some error in the passage."

"As a matter of law Mr. Fisher's testimony in that matter went for nothing. The record was the best evidence of the passage of the act."

This example was applied in the libel in admiralty now on before Judge Dole, brought by four sailors against the British bark Ivanhoe.

H. B. M. Consul Hoare was on the stand on behalf of libellees to prove the Merchant Shipping Act of 1894, passed by the British Parliament.

A. S. Humphreys and J. J. Dunne, for libellants, objected to the admission of the book, purporting to be a copy of the act. They held that the Consul's testimony to the effect that they sought to be introduced was indeed a copy of the act, was mere hearsay evidence. Ink notes appeared on the margin of a certain page to the effect that a certain section had been repealed in 1895 and libellants' counsel held there was nothing to show that the entire act had not been repealed. Argument continues this afternoon.
